FULLSTACK WEB DEVELOPER

Hello, I'm Leonardo Esteve! Since my fingers first reached the keyboard, I've been passionate about cables and code, exploring the vast universe of computing. After years of feeling the energy in every line of code I wrote, I've finally decided to make a bold shift in my career.

My story is one of audacious change. I chose to leave behind the usual routine and immerse myself in the exciting world of programming. This decision signifies not only a change in profession but also a tireless pursuit of what truly ignites my passion.
